On May 19-20, 2018 in Varna, Bulgaria - the Palace of Culture and Sports, was held The 32nd European Weight Category Karate Championships for Men and Women and European Championships for Juniors and Seniors.

There took place 613 competitors from 23 countries who compete in divisions – kumite, kata and Team kata.

All participants showed very strong performance in front of the 1500 spectators.

The 32nd European Weight Category Karate Championships passed under the supervision of the Director of International Department of IKO - Shihan Katsuhito Gorai, who held a Seminar day after the Championships, focusing on techniques related to the new rules in IKO.

For all teams this Championships was a very good experience for the next Kyokushin challenges.
